

Who You're seeking is seeking you

They say you'll learn what really matters

All you have got to do is just believe,

You should know you're not alone

When you're happy, when you grieve,

or when people keep telling you ,

All that you do is wrong, so then you seek for something

That can help you finish strong.

You can call me crazy, and I know it is not so easy too,

But believe me when I say this

Who you're seeking is seeking you (x2)

So just keep it coming pray and thank him well cause you know he's not stopping, to care for you, to be your father he's not gonna leave, just hold on to him because he's your anchor, always remember where ever you look for, whatever you do, you should know that

who you're seeking is seeking you(x2)

They say you'll learn what really matters

All you have got to do is just believe,

You should know you're not alone

When you're happy, when you grieve

or when people keep telling you ,

All that you do is wrong, so then you seek for something

That can help you finish strong.

You can call me crazy, and I know it is not so easy too,

But believe me when I say this

Who you're seeking is seeking you (x2)

He said love is patient, love is kind

Keep it in your heart and save it to your mind

I can't help it but notice that we haven't tried don't look far for an answer, to save us he died!

It's not so dramatic to see what is true

He's there in your darkness and saddest day too

The love that you look for is looking for you,

That right

believe who you're seeking is seeking you too.

They say you'll learn what really matters

All you have got to do is just believe,

You should know you're not alone

When you're happy, when you grieve or when people keep telling you ,

All that you do is wrong, so then you seek for something

That can help you finish strong.

You can call me crazy, and I know it is not so easy v too,

But believe me when I say this

Who you're seeking is seeking you (x2)
