

The Night of Passover

Narrator (Omar): "Twas the night before Passover; Jesus had asked His disciples to find a place for them to eat the final meal that they were going to have together, because the next day Jesus was going to be crucified. The disciples did not know this at this point, but Jesus knew that His time was about to come. After they found a place, the disciples went in and started preparing the table. Once they were finished they started eating bread and drinking wine. Then Jesus rose up and decided to tell the disciples of what was about to come and of what was going to happen in the next coming hours."

Jesus (Justin): "One of you will betray me."

Narrator (Omar): "They all started arguing amongst themselves."

Disciple (Miles) "Truly not I, Lord. It isn't me Lord."

Disciple (Joey): "It couldn't be me Lord, right?"

Jesus (Justin): "The one who eats the bread right now will betray me."

*Judas eats bread

Jesus (Justin): "This bread represents my body"

*Disciples eat bread together.

Jesus (Justin): "This wine represents my blood."

*Disciples drink wine together.

Narrator (Omar): "Later that night Jesus was sold to the pharisees for 30 pieces of silver. Later that night Jesus was taken away by the soldiers and put into jail. The next day, he was hung up on the cross and died after a long and painful death. Three days later, after Jesus had died on the cross he got out of the cave, all healed from the wounds, and with that the greatest story had ended, and his word was spread all across the land and all across time. The end."
