

The Meaning Behind The Art
By: Terry C.

Terry Chen: So pretty much this one, we began from the A, Mary hold baby from the darkness. It was the night that Jesus born and he bring the hope, he bring the light, so I make a white background to tell what is happen and B Jesus turn the water to the wine. I want to make it really clear that he did a miracle. So I make a really clear color change on liquids which is water, to the wine and um this one C was talking about Jesus wa, Jesus was pulling people out of from the water. As a miracle and the most important thing is he saved a person's life from, his magical power so about this moment, bigger and bigger. And finally I pick this one. And D because the first time he describe um the last supper was talking about the future not exist yet. Not happening yet, so I made this a little bit different than realistic to see the first time he described it, is now his his future. And E Jesus gave light, Jesus gave light to a blind man means he make man able to see. He gave the light to this amazing and half part the spar the blood on his feet tells people he was on the cross, that was true. He was dead once, but now he is able to walking is not meaning He is walking death. He is the son of God and he have the power to return. And back side E um is actually from our logo. I want to make Jesus on the cross um this background so I make a shadow on the light.
