

How to understand and coordinate the two syllabi

For this example i will be using the Sophomore Religion II syllabi, but the same is applicable to all Religion syllabi

On my website (www.danielegregory.info) from the “CLASSES” menu, you choose the section that applies to you. For our example that will be Religion II. You may notice that 2 syllabi formats are listed

Welcome About Me My Music

Blog Worship talks CAPSO

Class Stuff

BIBLE

Class Needs & Expectations
Useful Class Tools & Links
Class Notes, Final Reviews

Introduction to Christianity
Web based
• not currently teaching

Religion II

Web based

- calendar syllabus
- web interactive syllabus
- brief course description
- class WEB resources link
- past class notes

As you might surmise, one takes you to a calendar formatted syllabus and the other takes you to a more linear (with active weblinks) format.

When you look at the calendar it shows exactly what is happening from a TIME perspective. For example look at May 7. You'll notice that the memory verse for the week is Romans 12:1-2

		Quarter 4
		Acts: Living in the Waiting
Wk#	Subject	M Verse	Work
10	Review Projects
11	God's Eye View of the GC (Great Controversy reading; JOB Project) (recommend reading Early Writings excerpt)	◆ I Corinthians 4:9	N; P
12	God's Eye View of the GC cont'd (JOB Project)	◆ Job 1:20-22	N; P
13	Trouble on the Blue Planet (read and react) click here to download	◆ Revelation 12:7-10	J; N
14	Creation vs Evolution (Creation & our planet)	◆ Psalm 33:6	V; N; P
15	God the Creator (Bible Study: God the Creator)	◆ Isaiah 40:25-26	N
16	Healthy Living (Bible Studies: 2nd Coming & Relationships)	◆ I Corinthians 6:19-20	N
17	Begin work on Gospel Analysis Bibles Due by Thursday Gospel Analysis -- In class work time	◆ Romans 12:1-2
18	Continue work on Gospel Analysis Journal Due by Thursday Gospel Analysis -- In class work time	◆ John 15:13-14

When you look at the linear format (with the active web links) note which week ALSO has the memory verse as Romans 12:1-2. That's what week we are on. In this case, we are on week # 17.

If you're struggling trying to decipher the letters, there is a LEGEND at the bottom of the web page to tell you what it all means.